

Dr. Zvi Laster
Israel

Head of the department of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery, Poriya Hospital, Tiberias, Israel. Graduated at the Faculty of Dentistry, of the Hebrew University, Jerusalem in 1973. Specialized in Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery at Poriya Hospital, Tiberias Israel and Queen Victoria Hospital East-Grinstead England. Finished his specialization in 1980. President of the Israeli Society for Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery between 2001-2004. Invented and developed 16 new surgical instruments and surgical techniques for fracture fixation and special new implant for immediate loading and for implantation in the resorbed posterior maxilla without the need of sinus lifting and bone filling, two special alveolar crest distractors. Member of the examination board for Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery specialty. Lecturer at the Rapaport School of medicine Technion Haifa –Israel. Regularly invited to various centers around the world to perform demonstrative operations and present lectures.